

Lads o' Laois - A part

Fiddle

♩ = 112    Em                                  D                                  Em                                  D

5    Em                                  D                                  Em                                  D                                  Em

as taught by Shona Mooney, 18Mar2012

NOTE:

is played something like

although it is better to think of it thus:

(where the "grace notes" are of such short duration that they become "articulations" and their pitches are not discernible)