

To use the 1st, 4th and 5th chords of a key in their various inversions (forms) as practice for accompanying and playing tunes

Key - C major

Chords : C major (1st), F major (4th) and G major (5th)

C major chord                      F major chord                      G major chord

C   E   G                      F   A   C                      G   B   D

Detailed description: This musical staff shows three chords in C major. The first is the C major chord (C, E, G) in its root position. The second is the F major chord (F, A, C) in its root position. The third is the G major chord (G, B, D) in its root position. The notes are written on a treble clef staff in 4/4 time, with each chord occupying one measure.

4                      C                      G                      C                      F

C   E   G                      D   G   B                      E   G   C                      F   A   C

Detailed description: This musical staff shows four chords in C major. The first is the C major chord (C, E, G) in its root position. The second is the G major chord (D, G, B) in its first inversion. The third is the C major chord (E, G, C) in its first inversion. The fourth is the F major chord (F, A, C) in its root position. The notes are written on a treble clef staff in 4/4 time, with each chord occupying one measure.

8                      G                      F                      G

G   B   D                      A   C   F                      B   D   G

Detailed description: This musical staff shows three chords in C major. The first is the G major chord (G, B, D) in its root position. The second is the F major chord (A, C, F) in its first inversion. The third is the G major chord (B, D, G) in its first inversion. The notes are written on a treble clef staff in 4/4 time, with each chord occupying one measure.